

Hi,

I went to London last August with my friend Peter. We flew with British Airways. We arrived at five o'clock in the afternoon and took a taxi to our hotel. It was our first time to visit England.

The next day, we got up early and explored the city. We walked up and down London which is the capital city of England. Then, we moved to see Big Ben which is a famous monument in England. It is a large clock tower located at the northern end of Westminster Palace. It was fantastic! I took lots of photos.

After that, we visited the house of Shakespeare who is a prominent figure in the English literature. He was a writer, poet and a playwright. He wrote a famous play called "Romeo and Juliet". We had a great time. London is full of history and has a special atmosphere and the English food is wonderful.

Finally, after two weeks, before we left London, Peter and I went shopping and bought lots of souvenirs to help us remember the most exciting moments in London.

What about you? Did you go somewhere?

Hope to hear from you very soon,

Steve
